HYMN vs 1-4 John Newton alt.; vs5 John Rees (1828-1900)

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound/ that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,/ was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,/ and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear/ the hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares/ I have already come:/
'tis grace has brought me safe thus far,/ and grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,/ his word my hope secures;
he will my shield and portion be/ as long as life endures.

When we've been there a thousand years/ bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise/ than when we first begun.

HYMN 2 Karl Boberg (1859-1940); transl. Stuart K. Hine

O Lord my God,/ when I in awesome wonder/ consider all the works thy hand hath made,/ I see the stars,/ I hear the rolling thunder,/ thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee,/ how great thou art,/ how great thou art. (2x)

When through the woods/ and forest glades I wander/ I hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees,/ When I look down/ from lofty mountain grandeur/ and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze. Refrain

And when I think/ that God, his Son not sparing,/ sent him to die, I scarce can take it in/ that on the cross,/ my burden gladly bearing,/ he bled and died to take away my sin. Refrain

When Christ shall come,/ with shout of acclamation,/ and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!/ Then I shall bow/ in humble adoration/ and there proclaim,/ "My God, how great Thou art!" Refrain

HYMN 3

Horatius Bonar (1808-1889)

I heard the voice of Jesus say/ "Come unto me and rest."/ "Lay down, thou weary one, lay down/ thy head upon my breast."/ I came to Jesus as I was,/ so weary, worn and sad;/ I found in Him a resting place/ and He has made me glad.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,/ "Behold, I freely give/ the living water, thirsty one;/ stoop down and drink and live."/ I came to Jesus and I drank/ of that life-giving stream;/ my thirst was quenched, my soul revived,/ and now I live with him.

I heard the voice of Jesus say/ "I am this dark world's light;/ look unto me, thy morn shall rise/ and all thy day be bright."/ I looked to Jesus and I found/ in him my star, my sun;/ and in that light of life I'll walk/
'til trav'ling days are done.

HYMN 4

Henry Francis Lyte (1793-1847)

Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;/ to his feet your tribute bring./ Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,/ who like me his praise should sing?/ Praise him! (4x)/ Praise the everlasting King!

Praise him for his grace and favour/ to our fathers in distress./ Praise him, still the same as ever,/ slow to chide, and swift to bless./ Alleluia, alleluia! Glorious in his faithfulness!

Fatherlike he tends and spares us;/ well our feeble frame he knows./
In his hands he gently bears us,/ rescues us from all our foes./ Praise him! (4x)/ Widely as his mercy flows!

Angels, help us to adore him;/ ye behold him face to face./ Sun and moon, bow down before him,/ dwellers all in time and space./ Praise him! (4x)/ Praise with us the God of grace!

COLLECT

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING Jeremiah 28.5–9

A reading from the book of the prophet Jeremiah. The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD; and the prophet Jeremiah said, 'Amen! May the LORD do so; may the LORD fulfil the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the LORD, and all the exiles. But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the LORD has truly sent the prophet.' This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

PSALM Psalm 89.1–4, 15–18

R Your love, O Lord, for ever will I sing.

Your love, O Lord, for ever will I sing; from age to age my mouth will proclaim your faithfulness. For I am persuaded that your love is established for ever; you have set your faithfulness firmly in the heavens. R

'I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn an oath to David my servant: "I will establish your line for ever, and preserve your throne for all generations."' R

Happy are the people who know the festal shout! they walk, O Lord, in the light of your presence. They rejoice daily in your name; they are jubilant in your righteousness. R

For you are the glory of their strength, and by your favour our might is exalted. Truly, the Lord is our ruler; the Holy One of Israel is our king. R

SECOND READING Romans 6.12–23

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans. Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace. What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification. When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord. This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL Matthew 10.40–42

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord. Jesus said to the twelve: 'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple – truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.' This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.
